This was a nice experience. A word to the wise take full advantage of the tuk tuk drivers. They can get you around much quicker and safer in the sun and it just makes the whole experience much better. The little museum with emperor clothes was an added Cooling off bonus.

Vietnam?s architecture

03 Jul 2019

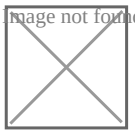

A must visit when travelling to Hue. Makes you think how beautiful was this city before the war. These lovely vestiges of Vietnam?s architecture are well preserved bearing in mind what happened there. There is also an electric car service which will drop you in the relevant places of the citadel. Worth visiting it.

Amazing history

28 Jun 2019

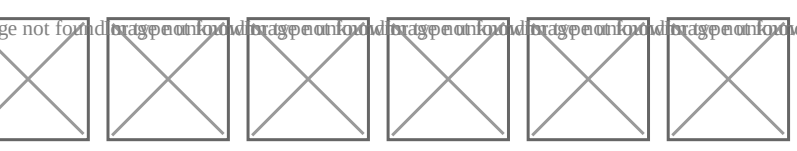

Hue citadel, We enjoyed exploring this amazing site, and learning the history. It is being renovated in many areas but the repairs they have done so far are very good, keeping it original. We enjoyed sitting in front of a fan to watch the information to cool down too! Remember to take your time to enjoy.

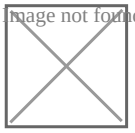

Big stars for service!!!

24 Mar 2019

Too beautiful, over our expectations!! Although the weather did not support us very much, we encountered heavy rain in Danang and hot weather in Hanoi, but everything was great. We have discovered a lot of things in this trip, very respectful of the enthusiasm of the tour guide, he's very kind, and cared about us. The accommodation was also very good, beautiful and cozy.

Interesting despite the destruction

19 Mar 2019

Very good place to discover part of Vietnam history, even if a fair amount has been destroyed or is being rebuilt / restored. I'd really suggest to go with a guide, otherwise you'd probably have difficulties to understand what was happening there.
